

I'll Be in the Bar
(Dan Smith/Denny Leroux)

I don't drink vodka for breakfast
Can't drink that Jack all day long
I work hard and you know it
So come on, baby, what's wrong?
When the work day is over
You ain't got to go too far
Come on down here and party
I'll be in the bar

Your friends all look at me funny
I don't cheat, I don't fool around
I'm good to you and you know it
So come on and lose that frown
Ain't nothing wrong with good bourbon
Pig's feet in a jar
Come to me now I'm waiting
I'm waiting here in the bar
I'll be in the bar

Some guys just go to the movies
Pretend they're up on the screen
But me, I hang with real people
A smoky club, always a scene
Ain't nothing wrong with pretending
I'll be your movie star
Just get yourself on down here
I'm live in person at the bar
I'll be in the bar
