

Mystery Gig Tonight
(Dan Smith/Jeff Harber)

There's a rumor through this town our local legends might be found
Off the road and roundabouts playing with some friends
Heard a rumor later on they may play a few new songs
Music people up till dawn happily borne away

Mystery gig tonight
I've got a friend who knows a roadie
And it might be at the Watt
May be at the Caledonia Lounge
May be at the venerable Uptown

In the pasture with those cows we turned the boombox up real loud
Almost wore those speakers out chasing the clouds away
In the winter of our souls on a stage so far from home
Lady Luck with her fell stroke staggered us to our knees

© 2007 Dan Smith and Jeff Harber – All Rights Reserved